GRAPHIC DESIGN INTERNSHIP

Haft2 Indigenous Internship Program

We're looking for the brightest creative minds in graphic design! Haft2 is a unique agency where brand and design talent unite in our shared passion for, and belief in the power of colour to change the world. We offer clients exceptional branding, design, and digital marketing. To find out more, check out our website Haft2.com

Currently we are looking for a talented Graphic Design Intern to complement our creative team.

The goal of the Haft2 Indigenous Internship program is to offer First Nations, Métis, and Inuit Participants professional and technical training in a creative studio. The program runs for a full 12 months broken into three periods of time - January to April, May to August and September to December (until the holiday break).

This is a paid internship. Candidates must be available 20 hours per week between 9am-5pm, Monday-Friday. We offer practical experience for Indigenous people who would like to broaden their knowledge and skills in various aspects of creative design.

Roles and Responsibilities

- Develop creative concepts through to final production
- Collaborate with our studio on a variety of design projects for clients and the Haft2 brand
- Aid in print and digital production tasks
- Create content and maintain the Haft2's social media platforms

Skills

- Proficient knowledge of the Adobe Creative Cloud suite including the latest versions of Photoshop, Illustrator, InDesign, After Effects and Adobe XD
- Strong written and oral communication skills
- Detail oriented, as well as a forward thinker

Qualified candidates must email their CV, cover letter and digital or PDF portfolio to carla@haft2.com
